Contributed by Stonerollers Ball

2001 was the second year for the Stonerollers B&S Ball. Some of the committee had left from the first year and some new members had been taken aboard for the ride. The committee for 2001 consisted of Adam Wedding, Belinda May, Ben Moloney, Darren Dalitz, Jackie Haebich, Andrew Hudson, Kym Noble, Lorraine Haebich, Robyn Mayfield, Simon Forster, Travis Schubert, Trevor Nagel, Matt Snibson, Rebecca Haebich, Glen Dohnt, Claire Crawford, Rob McGregor, Dale Burbidge, Brad Williams.

In 2001 the Stonerollers B&S Ball entertained about 1000 people all weekend. Saturday night had the crowd dancing to the band called Barking Ants and supported by D.J Sparky. On the Sunday the masses were able to compete in the first parolympics much to the pleasure or disgust of the mob. Other activities were horizontal bungee where successful participants were rewarded with a bottle of rum and of course the always crowd pleasing wet t shirt and jock comp. What the committee would love to see are those people defending their titles at the 2002 Stonerollers B&S Ball.

The Stonerollers B&S Ball raised alot of money which went towards the following charities Cildhood Cancer, Jervios country Fire Service, Lerwin Nursing Home, Murray Bridge City Lions Club, Murraylands Bluelight, Mypolonga Country Fire Service, Riding For The Disabled, Red Cross, Teen Challenge, St Vincent De Paul, St John and Murray Bridge Crippled Childrens Of Regency Park Auxilliary.
