

All the Bull from 2003

Contributed by Stonerollers Ball

Well the 2003 ball has been and gone and was a huge success again. Hats off to all the committee and volunteers who help to get the show on the road and things organised.

If you have any pics that you would like to see published from last year could you please email them to the committee so that they can be shown here for all to see.

Details of the funds from last year will be posted here shortly so stay tuned as the web site is in for a bit of an update.
