Well it is that time of year again can't wait, Four years ago i went to my first stonerollers, the next year i got engaged on the stage the next year i was married there in front of a bus and this year I will spend my first wedding anniversary there. Can't wait you guy's do a wicked job every year and i just love the fun and music and meeting so many people just as crazy as me. So see you at the gates love you guy's. And thanks to for all your help last year and your wicked message that you wrote us guy's on the ground, Still finding Rice everywhere!!!!!!
